Ten Minute Meetings:

1. MTA Ethnic Minority Affairs conference is on Friday, 12/7 (keynote speaker only) and Saturday 12/8 (workshops only) at the Bedford Glen Hotel in Bedford. The theme is 'Wake up! Break the cycle of racism.' If anyone is interested in attending, they should contact Allison ASAP. There are a series of workshops available on Saturday that are offered twice during the day, so participants could attend 2 of the following:

- Creating Safe Places to Break the Cycle of Racism
- Developing Relationships between Educators and Students of Color
- Racism and Trauma
- Restorative Practices in Schools: Creating Safe and Supportive Teaching and Learning Environments
- Think Global, Act Local: Decolonizing Curriculum

2. The PDC Committee is currently accepting applications for new course proposals! These courses allow Bedford faculty to receive much needed PDP's and inservice credits from within the district. They also offer inservice credit(s) and a generous stipend to the person teaching the course. These courses can be done online and/or in person, as long as they take place outside of regular school hours. Information is on the Staff Resources page under Professional Development.

3. **This is tomorrow** On Wednesday, November 14th from 7:00 PM - 8:00 PM the Burlington Educators' Association and the Bedford Educators' Association will be meeting with Representative Ken Gordon to discuss education funding. The meeting will be at Burlington High School. Enter through the BCAT door around the back of the high school. The public is welcome and encouraged to attend.
